caught between description and dream the felt and the imagined french artist odilon redon whose career bridged the 19th and 20th centuries transformed the natural world into nightmarish visions and bizarre fantasies closely allied with the symbolist movement redon offered his own interpretations of literary biblical and mythological subjects created a universe of strange hybrid creatures and presented landscape in a singular way we see grinning disembodied teeth smiling spiders melancholic floating faces winged chariots unfamiliar plant life and velvety black or colored swirls of atmosphere with a recent gift from the ian woodner family the museum of modern art is now the site of the most significant body of the artist s work outside france and this book will showcase the full range of redon s varied oeuvre charcoal noirs luminous pastels richly textured canvases literary collaborations and experiments in printmaking and will illuminate the hold his particular kind of modernism has had on both 20th century and contemporary artists this book is requisite reading material for any person claiming to be an educated and informed member of the global community our understanding in the west of the eastern cultures specially the different cultures involving the muslims is alarmingly low the book strives to offer a view from the ground a keyhole perspective that offers the readers a close and personal peek into some of the ethical underpinnings and the philosophical guiding parameters that inform the muslim and the eastern mind there are over 1.3 billion muslims in the world it would be a serious intellectual fallacy to assume that they are all homogenous or to be more preposterous assume they are all terrorists it is extremely tragic that it took the iranian hostage crisis to teach us about shia islam and 9/11 to teach us about wahabi islam properly acquired knowledge not just what we learn from the media will allow us to be anticipatory and rational rather than being reactive and emotional for the muslim reader specially the children and the youth the book strives to offer a deeper understanding of islam beyond the boundaries of ritual islam into the wide open space of spiritual and intellectual islam to inspire them to appreciate and live up to the wonderful legacy of islam and not to be mired down into some deviant interpretations of people with questionable motives the book is designed to encourage the process of tearing down walls and building bridges we share common dreams aspirations and challenges we share a common globe and a common destiny the author believes that there are no clashes of civilizations just clashes of ignorance and misunderstanding this publication presents a comprehensive catalogue of the works by pablo picasso in the metropolitan museum comprising 34 paintings 59 drawings 12 sculptures and ceramics and more than 400 prints the collection reflects the full breadth of the artist s multi sided genius as it asserted itself over the course of his long career
